Introducing Venereous Shaving Oil and Jelly

You may remember a couple months ago we learned about Venereous Mountain Mist, an aftershave for your nether-region. Well, the good folks at Newf Brand have expanded their line with Venereous Shaving Oil ($19.95) and Venereous Shaving Jelly ($18.95). Now you've got your beginning, middle, and end.

Beginning:

The 100% natural Venereous Shaving Oil is used as a pre-shave balm, moisturizing your skin and stubble so the razor glides easily without getting caught on anything.

Middle:

The non-foaming Jelly allows you to see what is being shaved and adds other great ingredients which moisturize the skin and prevent irritation.

End:

Control those unsightly red razor burn bumps, prevent ingrown hairs and leave your skin feeling smooth, soft and moisturized after every hair removal treatment.

And, to make these more enticing, all orders which contain the Oil or the Jelly will be shipped by December 15th and receive 20% off. Not too shabby.
